Old First Presbyterian Church New Member Information

Old First Church is a community of Christians united as a congregation of the Presbyterian Church (USA). Each enrolled member is asked to contribute his or her time and abilities to the extent that she or he is able to do so. We recognize that men and women who desire to unite with Old First come from many different backgrounds of faith, and are in different stages in their own faith journeys. For these reasons, and so that your spiritual needs may be more closely met and your talents and abilities most effectively used, please respond to the attached series of questions as part of the process by which you are placed on our church rolls.

Welcome.
